

---

POSTERS

PATHWAYS FROM HOMELESSNESS
2019

March
13/14th

---

Outside the Margins: Palliative and End of Life Education for Homeless Support Services

Gemma Allen, Diversity & Inclusion Lead, Mary Stevens Hospice

Peer Support and Homelessness: A Summary of Recent Evidence

Dr Stephanie Barker, University of Southampton

TALKING POSTER: Stephanie Barker will give a short presentation on this topic during the lunchbreak on Day 2 of the conference (Thursday 14th March).

Reducing Health Inequalities Amongst Inclusion Health Groups: An audit tool for the voluntary sector

Caroline Bernard, Head of Policy & Communications, Homeless Link

Sarah Sweeney, Communications and Health Policy Co-ordinator, Friends Family and Travellers

TALKING POSTER: Caroline Bernard and Sarah Sweeney will give a short presentation on this topic during the lunchbreak on Day 2 of the conference (Thursday 14th March).

Successful Treatment of Hep C in a Dedicated GP Practice for the Homeless Using a Multi-disciplinary Approach

Dr John Budd, GP, Edinburgh Access Practice

TALKING POSTER: Dr John Budd will give a short presentation on this topic during the lunchbreak on Day 2 of the conference (Thursday 14th March).

Choking Up: Relationships and the psychodynamics of multiple exclusion

Dr Adam Burley, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, NHS Lothian

Service Evaluation

Dr Emily Clark, GP

'A Mile in Her Shoes': A qualitative exploration of the impact of volunteer led running groups for homeless women

Jo Dawes, Senior Lecturer in Physiotherapy, St George's, University of London

A Reflection from the Seaside: Caring for the homeless

Bruno De Oliveira, Service Co-ordinator, Brighton Homeless Service, St John Ambulance Sussex Homeless Services

'I feel like I get treated like a third-class citizen, not even a second-class one': Understanding the barriers to health care from a homeless person's perspective

Nicola Grassbrook, Senior Public Health Officer, Devon County Council

---

---

POSTERS

PATHWAYS FROM
HOMELESSNESS
2019

March
13/14th

---

Humanising Medicine: teaching on tri-morbidity using experts by experience narratives in medical education

Dr Heidi Gure-Kinke, GP, City Reach Health Service

Presented by: Emily Player, GP ACF, University of East Anglia

TALKING POSTER: Emily Player will give a short presentation on this topic during the lunchbreak on Day 2 of the conference (Thursday 14th March).

Midwives' Duty to Refer Risk of Homelessness

Clare Livingstone, Professional Policy Advisor, Royal College of Midwives

SRH Clinical Care: How a human rights based approach can help tackle stigma

Dr Rudiger Pittrof, Consultant in Community Sexual Health and HIV, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS FT

Presented by: Elana Covshoff, SHRINE Programme Manager, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS FT

TALKING POSTER: Elana Covshoff will give a short presentation on this topic during the lunchbreak on Day 2 of the conference (Thursday 14th March).

Emotionally Unstable Personality Disorder in the Street Based Sex Worker Population

Jodie Servante, Medical Student, Bristol University

Understanding Inclusion Health: A student-led curriculum innovation

Joshua Strange, Medical Student, University of Manchester

Housing First and Health Service Evaluations; Wicked problems, messy data and knowledge mobilisation

Shannen Vallesi, Research Officer, School of Population and Global Health, University of Perth

Evaluation of the Peninsula Dental Social Enterprise Clinic in Plymouth for People who are Homeless

Christina Worle, Peninsula Dental Social Enterprise

Improving health outcomes for homeless patients in secondary care

Dr Maya Zosmer, Junior Doctor

---